Authoring XML Elements (cont'd)
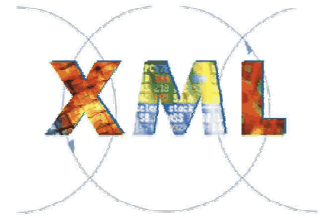

- An attribute is a name-value pair separated by an equal sign (=).

- Example:

  <City ZIP="94608"> Emeryville </City>

- Attributes are used to attach additional, secondary information to an element.